I am delighted that you have chosen for your child to join AMJ Theatrical Academy of Performing Arts. We are all about encouraging children to have fun and be themselves whilst exploring the fascinating world of Performing Arts and Musical Theatre. We want children to grow in confidence and form new friendships that we hope will last them a lifetime. If at any time you have any questions or want to find out more about our Trinity Exams or our private sessions then please don't hesitate in coming to speak to me or a member of our teaching team.

I look forward to getting to know you and to working with your Star.

Adam

Head of Performing Arts and Production

We encourage all our students to be themselves, be proud of their individuality and take 'safe risks' through rehearsals and performance
